

NO MORE MOVES: A Young Adult Horror Story (Dark and Dreary Tales)

Nick spent all of his life being shipped from orphanage to orphanage. Though he could never figure out why he was always locked up and beaten everywhere he went. Everyone knew his secret but him. He had given up hope and knew he would never be adopted, loved or treated with respect. That is until he met Emily. She too had been raised in orphanages all her life. She knew exactly how this young boy felt. She wanted to save him and promised him a better life. And then one night it happened.

He was so scared as he heard all the screams in the house. This was his chance to break away, but what about Emily? She was the only that cared. Where was she? Warning: This horror story has very dark and disturbing images. Adults should read the story before determining whether or not it is appropriate for a child in their care. Here is a preview: Nick opened his eyes and saw Sister Mary glaring at him, holding the leather strap in her hand. He sat up and was instantly on his feet. He knew that there would be no breakfast, or lunch for him today. When she would wake him up in this fashion, he knew it was garden work. It was back breaking, but it was outside and he was usually left alone. He didn't say a word as he followed the cruel Sister out to the garden. I want every single weed yanked out, green beans and peas planted as well. Three rows of each. Do you understand? Yes Sister Mary. Weeds pulled and three rows of green beans and peas. Good. If you do this correctly, you may have lunch, and the forgiveness of the Lord. Sister Mary? What? Why does the Lord hate me so much? What did I do? You were born child. Your mother was Satans whore; just as her other was before her; an abomination. But I don't WHACK!!!! Sister Mary's hand slapped him across the face, splitting his bottom lip. He didn't speak another word. He grabbed the supplies and went right to work.
