

Breakfast and a Bath for Baby: A Tale of the Dark Macabre

A story of the dark macabre and paranormal, this is the tale of Baby-Boy. On a morning like any other, Charlene is making breakfast for her beloved son, whom she has fondly nicknamed Baby-Boy. But today is like no other day, nor will it ever be forgotten. Today, there is evil in a Visitor known only as V. Charlene unknowingly enters a nightmare that she will never manage to escape, nor will the small town, ordinary community in which she lives ever forget the grotesque, disturbing horror of what happens to her and her baby. If you enjoy being creeped and twisted, disturbed and scared by tales of the dark and macabre, and of the evil of the paranormal, this story is waiting for you. And so is V ... Opening Lines: Baby-Boy is hungry. The Visitor sits across from him and watches. Silent, empty, the Visitor, known only as V, jerks just once, but fast, an ugly click to the right. Vs eyes set on one line of focus dead ahead to Baby-Boy. Vs eyes bulge, twitching a moment, but Baby-Boys eyes are looking at Charlene. V looks only at the baby, though it doesnt quite see, at least not yet. Hears, but doesnt understand, though V is sensing something. The snap of Vs head helps it focus somehow.
