

Haunted Wiltshire

Did you know there were vampires on the darkly atmospheric Salisbury Plain, not far from the famous Stonehenge? Was there really black magic and witchcraft going on in the small village of West Lavington in modern times? Who was the tall, dark, horned figure stalking the stones at Avebury stone circle? Be amazed by the saucy naked phantom highwaymen of Cherhill. Read the chilling tale of a young man who fell in love with a mysterious woman in a residential house in Swindon. Find out how the Black Death came to the beautiful little village of Urchfont, and why you should be careful who you sit next to at Chippenham railway station. If you really are prepared to be scared then read the disturbing tales of hauntings, vampires, poltergeists, witches and phantoms that roam the wonderful Wiltshire countryside.
